

JANUARY 2013

The MAC Smallbore Shooter of the Month

The MAC Smallbore Shooter of the Month is Justin Vietinghoff of Virginia Military Institute.

Cadet Vietinghoff is a VMI 2d Classmen (Junior) and shot in the low 500s last season. At the Citadel on January 26, Justin recorded a season high 547 in Smallbore and a season high Air Rifle score of 562.

Justin is an Electrical Engineer Major and a member of the Virginia Military Institute Men's Team. Justin is a native of Chesapeake, VA and will be nominated as the team captain next season.

Justin has carried above a 2.00 grade point average throughout a rigorous cadetship and extremely demanding electrical engineering program here at VMI. He also represents VMI during numerous parades and drill competitions.

Justin participates in the Navy ROTC program and is currently seeking a commission.

JANUARY 2013

The MAC Air Rifle Shooter of the Month

The MAC Air Rifle Shooter of the Month is Joshua Lawrence of Virginia Military Institute.

Cadet Lawrence is a VMI 1st Classmen (Senior) and has been on the Rifle Team all four years. At the Citadel on January 26, Joshua recorded a 565 Air Rifle score and a 530 in Small Bore.

Joshua is biology major and has served as the Captain of the Virginia Military Institute Men's Team for over two years. He is a native of Virginia Beach, VA. and continues to be one of the top shots on the team. He has been instrumental in coaching and training new cadets as they join the rifle team.

Joshua has carried above a 3.00 grade point average throughout a rigorous cadetship and demanding degree program here at VMI. He was also a member of Corps Color Guard and represents VMI during numerous parades and drill competitions.

Joshua participates in the Naval ROTC program and will commission as an Ensign in the United States Navy.